

Inspiring PLACES. Spaces.

If you love to travel and explore new places or even if you just love learning about different cities and cultures, you can incorporate those experiences into your home.

Your décor doesn't always have to look similar to the place that inspired you. Sometimes, your room may just have a similar feeling or color palette.

We've chosen five inspiring places to show you how you can transform your inspiration into inspiring spaces.

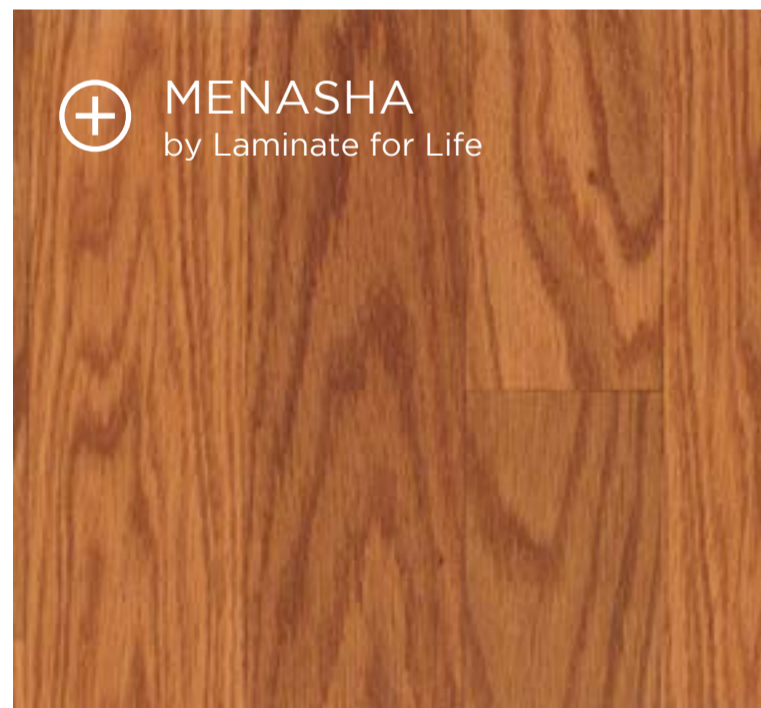

Design: Paul Semkuley

Design: William MacDonald

MENASHA
by Laminate for Life

Luxurious upholstery and elegant lines in this space from designer William MacDonald give the room an imperial feel.

